The American bark Brothers was captured by an armed force of Mexicans the same day, off Santa Anna, and her Captain forced to abandon her. He was picked up by the Harvest Home and arrived at Galveston yesterday. It is understood the Captain will visit Washington to make full statements of these facts to Government authorities.

Trotting at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 6.—The trot between Goldsmith Maid and Lucy at the Cold Spring course, near here, to-day, was one of the most extraordinary in racing annals, the Maid making the best heat and the best three heats on record. Second heat, time 2:17, beating Dexter's time a quarter of a second. Time of the three heats, 2:20¼, 2:17, 2:20½. The judges watches disagreed on the time of the second heat, one marking 2:16½, one 2:16¾, and one 2:17. It was finally decided to announce the slowest.

Horace Greeley on his Travels.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Horace Greeley arrived here to-day, on his way to Wisconsin and Iowa, where he will deliver agricultural addresses. While here he is reported as saying that while Grant has made as good a President as he expected he is unavailable for renomination, and sure to be beaten; that Colfax is much stronger; that it is believed Grant could not get more than one Southern State, and the East and West are tired of him.

At Rockford, Ill., yesterday, J. Zimmerman killed his wife, aged 70 years, stabbing her with a carpenter's awl, and then attempted suicide.

A Spanish man-of-war is still watching the steamer Hornet, which is waiting for orders.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Cable Dispatches from London.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—A large meeting is being held in Glasgow to-night to support the strikers in New Castle. Resolutions calling for a reduction of the term of a day's work to nine hours were adopted. The Hall was crowded. Good order prevailed.

Tichborne claimant, creates excitement wherever he goes. At Liverpool his rooms are continually surrounded by a crowd, and when he appeared at the windows, a great cheer was set up. Managers of theaters invite him to accept boxes. His face is fat and ruddy and he is in continual humor. No restraint is placed on his movements, though detectives follow him like a shadow.

Proprietors in New Castle are sending everywhere to get men to fill the places of the strikers. Fresh workmen are arriving from Cornwall, London, Norway and other parts. Some factories are able to resume work with their former activity, although four thousand of the old hands have left.

The remains of Renforth reached Gateshead to-night. Thousands followed the coffin to the house of his widow.

Forty-six plate layers were instantly killed by the accident on the Preston and Carlisle railroad. The number killed by the explosion at Wigan is ninety-six.

There have been two more explosions at Wigan. The shaft has been bricked up.

Austria and Germany.

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—The Provincial Correspondence is confident that the Imperial Conference at Salzburg will strengthen the friendship of Germany and Austria.

SALZBURG, Sept. 6.—Emperor William and Bismarck arrived to-night and were received by the Emperor of Austria with a brilliant suite. The Sovereigns talked together fifteen minutes. A grand banquet will be held to-night, at which both Emperors and the statesmen of both Empires will be present.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—The Public insinuates that the intimate relations of Chevalier Nogra with Napoleon renders his position here as representative of Italy, untenable.

The Assembly has adopted a bill laying the burden of losses of the war on the whole nation, with a distribution of ten million francs among sufferers by the insurrection. The Commune league for the deliverance of Alsace and Lorraine, announces that it will continue its labors, but modifies the title to the society for promotion of Alsatian emigration.

Thiers gave Bazaine an audience of over an hour to-day. The Marshal has appeared before the Committee on Military Investigations. He made a speech in defense of his conduct in the war, attributing his failure at Metz principally to the lack of ammunition.

The Francaise newspaper says that officers of the Italian army are studying the strategic points of adjacent French territory in order to be prepared in case of a war with France.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

Encounter with Horse Thieves.

EUGENE CITY, Sept. 7.—Sheriff Pendleton of Lane county had a desperate encounter with two Indian horse thieves, George and Charley, in the river bottom, near this place. He succeeded in capturing Charley, but George escaped, badly shot, being traced for some distance by his bloody tracks.

OREGON.

Gervais Station on French Prairie has its name from Joseph Gervais, one of the earliest pioneer settlers. He lived there more than fifty years ago.

The following named gentlemen have been admitted to practice law on examination before the Supreme Court: Frank L. Stott, Portland; Julius Stratton, Salem, and Eugene Sullivan, Salem.

"The OREGONIAN does not scruple to pirate news from the Mercury. This is all wrong, neighbor." So says the Mercury. If we did chance to "pirate" a single item we ask pardon. We are not likely to find another in that paper soon; hence there is little danger of the insult being repeated.

The Baker City Academy was totally destroyed by fire on the 3d inst. How it caught is a mystery. The building was not completed, and was still on the hands of Mr. Twiggs, the contractor, to whom it will be a heavy loss. The Academy was being erected with money lent by the State.

The Statesman relates this: Mr. J. H. Coulter, an esteemed gentleman, was taken suddenly sick yesterday in a strange manner, and at last accounts was about the same. The facts, as near as we could learn, are as follows: While working in his store last Tuesday, he knocked a small piece of skin from one of his knuckles, but the scratch was so slight that little notice was taken of it until yesterday, when it began to swell up until it reached his shoulder. At about 1 o'clock he went to see a doctor, and not finding him in returned home, when he was immediately taken with spasms and convulsions, which ended in the lockjaw. Several doctors were called in, and all that medical aid could do was promptly done, but his intense pain continued until brought under the influence of medicine. He is in a very critical condition and his recovery doubtful.

POLITICAL NOTES.

A letter from Southeastern Massachusetts says General Butler will get very few votes in Plymouth county, for those that read the Bible and those that read the newspapers will find him about equally denounced in both.

Horace Greeley continues to talk against President Grant. He thinks Grant isn't popular and couldn't be re-elected. This is as much as if Greeley should say to the Republican party, "If you want a truly popular man for a candidate, take the undersigned."

The San Francisco Bulletin prints a resolution adopted by the Democratic Legislature of California, in 1863, for the encouragement of Chinese immigration, shows that many prominent Democrats were then in favor of introducing Coolie labor in lieu of Negro slavery, and declares that it is absurd for Democrats to claim a better record on this question than the Republicans, who never came into power until Chinese immigration had reached its maximum, under the fostering influence of Democratic treaties and Legislation.

The Sandusky Register expresses the opinion that Ewing undoubtedly expressed the sentiments of the Ohio Democracy and the large majority of all Western Democrats, when he denounced the payment of the interest on the National debt in gold, and spoke in opposition to the National banks. But the Register also says, that the people of Ohio have already passed judgment upon the most contemptible folly of the Ohio Democracy, and that there is even less likelihood of a Democratic victory on such a platform now than there was two years ago, when Pendleton, the father of the folly, was a candidate for Governor.

Who are Entitled to Bounty Land.

The commissioner of pensions will soon issue instructions and new regulations for procuring bounty land warrants, through that office. The following instructions will be of interest to many:

The acts of congress now in force granting bounty land entitle each of the surviving persons in the following classes to a certificate or warrant for such quantity of land as shall make, in the whole, with what he may have heretofore received, 160 acres, provided he shall have served a period of not less than 14 days, to wit:

I. Commissioned and non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, whether of the regulars, volunteers, rangers or militia, who were regularly mustered into the service United States in any of the wars in which of the this country has been engaged since 1790, and prior to March 3, 1855, to wit.

II. Commissioned and non-commissioned officers, seamen, ordinary seamen, flotillamen, marines, clerks and landsmen in the navy in any of said wars.

III. Militia, volunteers and State troops of any State or Territory called into military service, and regularly mustered therein, and whose services have been paid by the United States.

IV. Wagonmasters and teamsters who have been employed under the direction of competent authority, in time of war, in the transportation of military stores and supplies.

V. Officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary war, and marines, seamen and other persons in the naval service of the United States during that war.

VI. Chaplains who served with the army in the several wars of this country.

VII. Volunteers who served with the armed forces of the United States in any of the wars mentioned, subject to military orders, whether regularly mustered into the service of the United States or not.

Each of the surviving persons in the following classes are entitled to a like certificate for a like quantity of land, without regard the length of service (provided he was regularly mustered into service) to wit:

1. Officers and soldiers who have been actually engaged in any battle in any of the wars in which this country has been engaged prior to the war of the rebellion.

2. Those volunteers who served at the invasion of Plattsburg, in September, 1814.

3. The volunteers who served at the battle of King's Mountain, in the revolutionary war.

4. The volunteers who served at the battle of Nickojack against the confederate savages of the south.

5. The volunteers who served at the attack on Lewiston, in Delaware, by the British fleet in the war of 1812.

In addition to these classes these acts also extend to all Indians who served the United States in any of their wars prior to the war of the rebellion, the provisions of this and all the bounty land laws heretofore passed, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the Indians had been white men.

Where the service has been rendered by a substitute, he is the person entitled to the benefits of these acts, and not his employer.

In the event of the death of any person who, if living, would be entitled to a certificate or warrant as aforesaid, leaving a widow, or, if no widow, such minor child or children is entitled to a certificate or warrant for the same quantity of land such deceased persons would be entitled to receive under the provisions of said acts if now living.

A subsequent marriage will not impair the right of any such widow to such warrant if she be a widow at the time of her application. Persons within the age of twenty-one years on the 3d day of March, 1855, are deemed minors within the intent and meaning of said acts.

Faithfully perform your duty.

The Lincoln Monument.

[Correspondence of the Boston Advertiser.]

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Aug. 7, 1871.

The monument now being raised to the memory of Abraham Lincoln is the chief object of interest here. The site of the monument is a high, natural mound, with gentle slopes, and standing at a goodly distance from the main cemetery, on the side nearest the main entrance. The architectural part of the monument, which is now nearly completed, has been done by W. D. Richardson of Springfield. It consists of a solid base built of the best quality of Quincy granite. This is 31 feet in height and 17 feet square, 15 feet of the height being below the surface. It is surrounded by a terrace 74 feet square. On this base stands the monument proper, or obelisk rather, which is also of Quincy granite. Its height is 65 feet, it is 12 feet square at the base, tapering to eight feet square at the apex.

The shaft presents an imposing appearance, its very simplicity giving it a characteristic grandeur not to be seen in more ornamental shafts. It has a circular opening from base to apex, which you can ascend by a circular iron stairway. Near the apex a good view of the surrounding country is afforded through windows cut in the sides of the shaft. On one side there is a semicircular projection of the mason-work, of even height with the terrace, entered by a door level with the ground. This is called the catacomb, and has six crypts,—one for the remains of Lincoln and five for the members of his family. Opposite the catacomb on the south side of the base of the monument, is another projection, also of granite, inside which is a room bearing the appropriate name of "Memorial Hall," it being intended for articles which may in any way be regarded as souvenirs of the lamented President. From the terrace to the ground are four flights of steps made of solid granite, but the terrace, catacomb and memorial hall are all covered with large slabs of a superior quality of limestone, the exterior walls of each being of solid granite. Over a door on the south side of the obelisk is to be placed the coat of arms of the United States in bronze, and on the projection where this door is to be placed is to stand a bronze statue of Mr. Lincoln facing to the south.

On the terrace will be placed four groups of statuary in bronze, representing the infantry, cavalry, artillery and navy of the United States, —one opposite each face of the obelisk. The architectural part of the monument will cost $136,550. The statuary, is to be the work of Larkin G. Mead, the famous Vermont sculptor. The statue of Lincoln has already been modeled in plaster, and is to be cast from cannon captured during the late war. Mr. Mead is now at work in Italy upon the coat of arms, and as soon as the model is completed, it will be shipped to this country to be cast in the same manner as the statue of Lincoln. The other pieces of statuary will be completed as soon as the funds of the association will warrant the outlay. The statue will cost $13,700, and the coat of arms $1,500. The subscriptions collected at the time the work was contracted for amounted to nearly $160,000. The largest proportion of these subscriptions came from the colored people and from the Sunday schools. It is probable that a public dedication will take place early in the coming fall.

In the design of the statue the President is represented in twice life-size, holding in his left hand a scroll, on which is written the word "Emancipation," and in the other a pen, intended to represent the one with which the President wrote the immortal edict. The American flag, lying upon the fasces at his feet, is designed to typify the war for the Union, while near by rests a crown of laurel. In the coat of arms the eagle is supported by a shield, the stars of which are partially obscured. The olive branch is cast upon the ground, and in the midst of the conflict the chain of slavery is broken asunder, one portion remaining in the eagle's talons, while he holds the other end in his beak. Of course, until these pieces of statuary are placed in position it will be impossible to form a just idea of the work. Mr. J. C. Powers of Springfield is at work upon a full history of the movement. The book is to be published the present month.

The Age of Progress.

It is only by looking back a few years into the past, and comparing that time with the present, that we are able to realize the long and rapid strides mankind have made and are making in civilization and progress; and to see the obstacles they have placed in the way of their own advancement.

Every decade has its leaders in the different fields of investigation, who bring forth by their patient and unappreciated labor plans and principles which, practically tested, prove powerful levers in uplifting the world. Although Fulton had full faith in the success of his invention, yet it was a trying moment for a man whose life had been a long continued sacrifice that this day might come; and when at last it had appeared, the crowd which lined the shores of the Hudson greeted the great inventor with rude jokes and jeers at the folly of such an undertaking. It was the same spirit of ignorance and bigotry that met the great discovery of Galileo, and compelled him to abjure as heresy his grand enunciation that the world moved; and the same heroism which he exhibited then has given to us those and other discoveries, through suffering, and sometimes by the throes of agony. Standing before those who had overpowered resistance by force, he indignantly stamped his foot upon the earth, and muttered: Yet it moves.

It is this unconquerable power of deep conviction in the minds of our benefactors, and a vision which penetrates the mazes of futurity and sees a new era of development in the successful introduction of these discoveries, which their fellow-men cannot appreciate, that gives them success. It is heroism no less than that of men who have suffered or faced death for principles which were to benefit others more than themselves.

Morse, whose praise is sounded abroad through all lands as the inventor of the wonder working instrument that annihilates distance, and with lightning speed flashes past old time, laughing at his plodding pace, was a hero when it cost something to be one. That he might give to the world the practical benefit of his great invention, he, who might have lived easily and independently as others lived, suffered extreme poverty that men might have the great civilizing and christianizing agency of the telegraph. It is right that he should be crowned with surpassing glory —not alone that he invented this tongue of fire, but also that he compelled the world to speak by it, only through his own self-sacrifice.

A few years hence another generation will look back upon this day of wonders with amazement—not that such great things were accomplished, but that men were so blind and prejudiced and narrow minded, and that this age did not see clearly what they do not even question. Amidst all the wrangling and turmoil of the present, let us steady ourselves by well known and immutable truth, watching and ready to welcome the appearance of her heralds as they appear with new messages, remembering "the world moves," and; may we not say, Moves forward.

The New York Tribune has this:

A year ago the World was one of the most earnest assailants of the robberies of the Tammany Ring. To-day it is foremost in defending them. The Ring threatens to institute a suit for the possession of the land upon which the Times office is built; the World office stands upon the same property. Is there any connection between this significant fact and the World's extraordinary change of policy?

CURRENT NOTES.

Secretary Boutwell, it is said, owns three farms in Groton, Mass., and rivals Mr. Greeley in the quality of his wool-bearing, turkeys, and turnips that only cost five dollars a peck.

The Apache Indians have a white captive probably a washed negro minstrel, who amuses them so with comic songs and dances that they will not ransom him at any price.

Fossil Creek, Kansas, was invaded recently by a drove of three hundred buffalos, that had been frightened by a train of cars. They went through the town on the double quick, hurried by the shot-guns of the citizens.

A Mormon missionary, with one wife, courted a girl in Wales and persuaded her to go to Utah and there wed him. But when she got to Salt Lake, an old saint, a widower, gobbled her up before the missionary arrived. He now believes in Utah depravity.

A Leipsic dealer in autographs lately offered the manuscript of Victor Hugo's "Notre Dame" for sale. He asked only seventy-five dollars for it. It is written on very coarse blue paper, and contains but very few erasures and alterations, a proof of the author's extraordinary facility of composition.

Combining with his knowledge, skill and experience in his special branch of the profession all that the inventors of the age or the late discoveries in medical science have brought to the aid of the modern practitioner DR. ABORN is prepared to treat with almost unfailing success all such cases as may come under his care. He has, within the past few years, introduced into his practice many new and important remedies, with new and effectual modes of application, with which, during his professional career, he has produced the most successful and satisfactory results.

DR. ABORN.

For twelve years past has devoted himself to an exclusive practice for the treatment of obstinate chronic diseases, especially such cases as have resisted all the ordinary modes of practice. He has thus been enabled to treat at least five times as many patients annually as he possibly could, had he treated them at their residences. Thus he claims twelve years' office practice, exclusively devoted to special chronic diseases as more than equivalent to sixty years' experience in general practice.

DR. ABORN does not subject his patients to any painful or unpleasant operations. His treatment is mild and safe for the most delicate child. The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 8, 1871.

The California Election.

Just as we were about to commence receiving our report from California yesterday the line went down; so we are without further advices relative to the election. We have, however, carefully examined the figures telegraphed on Wednesday night and compared them with returns of former elections, and are satisfied that the chances are strong in favor of Booth's election. We are almost certain of two Congressmen, and there seems to be a probability that we have secured all three of them.

While we do not yet claim with any positiveness the success of the Republican State ticket, we are not able to see how it can be defeated, supposing that the vote of San Francisco is evenly divided between the parties. Haight, we think, must have 2,000 majority in that city in order to make his election sure, and there is no reason to believe, from the information before us, that he has any majority at all in the city.

Comparing the vote of interior towns and counties with the vote in the Presidential election, we find that the majorities for Booth are holding up fully to those for Grant. Thus, San Joaquin county is reported 250 majority for Booth; Grant's majority was 234. Sacramento is reported 800 for Booth; it gave 977 for Grant. The town of Grass Valley is reported 175 for Haight; it gave Seymour 333. At Santa Clara Booth's majority is said to be 40; Grant's majority was six. Vallejo gave Grant but 53 majority; it is reported now to have increased enormously its Republican majority. In Placer a decrease of the Republican majority is reported. The city of Marysville shows a Republican gain. We give the above as examples, some showing gains and some losses, but on the whole that Booth has received Grant's vote. On a candid review of what returns there are before us we think the probabilities point decidedly to a Republican triumph. No doubt we shall be able to give the result with certainty to-morrow.

Reasons Enough.

A Democratic contemporary intimates that it would like to know what reasons can be adduced for the continued ascendency of the Republican party throughout the United States. This can be answered in a very brief space.

Democracy has frequently threatened to overturn all Republicanism has accomplished, during and since the war, when it shall gain the power. That this is its secret purpose all well informed persons know. The mask is worn over these hideous features of its body, in order to hide its purpose. Now and then some one of its adherents, bolder than the rest, betrays the intention. Democracy would fain muzzle such partisans as A. H. Stephens, who plainly tells the people that the enactments of the Republican party, on the subjects of suffrage, the validity of the Nation's debt and the invalidity of that of the late Southern Confederacy are illegal, therefore null and void. If we wish these questions again opened up, and the legality of our national debt again jeopardized by the villainy of ex-rebels and their tools, the Northern Democrats, elevate the party to power which claims them as its own. But if we want an enduring peace, a final sealing up of all the woes and troubles growing out of the war, prosperity to continue to smile upon us; and friendship to grow and strengthen with all the world, continue in power the party that has wrestled and clenched with the demon of slavery, and never let go its hold until torn and disjointed, it lay beneath his feet, the brave Republican party of progress, economy and reform.

The "Lost Cause" Programme.

A manifesto from the "Southern Association," a society existing in New York, is published in the New York Herald. It is in the form of a pamphlet, and is issued in a "confidential" manner for circulation through the South. The avowed object is to invite the South to repudiate the "new departure" and to show "how the lost cause may be regained." The New York Herald comments at some length on this singular document. It says: "All this may be very absurd, but it cannot be denied that the Southern programme here presented furnishes a new and striking interpretation of the late speeches of Jeff Davis in Alabama and Georgia on the 'acceptance of the situation.' * * * Upon this theory there is mischief in this thing. It demolishes the Democratic party in the South. It revives the issues of the war in a new shape. It explains the Ku Klux Klans and the Ku Klux Bill. It gives color to what General Grant said to our correspondent at Long Branch on the Treaty of Washington. He feared another war with the South, and hence his great desire for peace with England." It has been suggested that the pamphlet may have been prepared by Republicans, but the Herald discredits the suggestion, says it has "all the ear-marks of a Southern manifesto, and doubtless it speaks the sentiments and true purposes of a large body of Southern men."

The entire cost of the whole printing done for all departments of the public service of the United States is less than the printing bills of New York paid by the Democratic rulers of that city. A contemporary says: "What would be the consequences should the country permit such a party to seize upon the reins of government at Washington and hold them for four years we leave to the reasonable conjecture of all honest men. Our own opinion is that in that time they would steal more than has been paid off of the public debt from 1865 to date, and crush the credit of the nation so that its six per cent bonds would not fetch fifty cents on the dollar in any money market in the world."

And the thefts of the Radical thieves during one year, footed up $60,000,000. This was declared to be so by Mr. Dawes, a Radical member from Massachusetts, on the floor of Congress.—Herald.

Is the Herald growing reckless? It cannot show by the record that Mr. Dawes made such a "declaration." Unfounded assertions, though made by wholesale, will not lift its party up. Mr. Dawes, early in 1870, made a notable speech in which he criticised the estimates of some of the Departments, but he did not "declare," because it is not true, that "Radical thieves had stolen $60,000,000." His views in regard to appropriations were adopted, and they were reduced accordingly.

But we weary of this.—OREGONIAN.

If your are weary already, we shouldn't wonder if you get very tired before you get through.—Herald.

Having disposed of about a dozen of your predecessors, we have no doubt whatever of being able to "get through" with a number more.

An "Estimate" on California.

Here is an estimate of the result in California, as given by the San Francisco Chronicle, three days before the election. We print it to enable readers to make a comparison with results telegraphed:

Horace Greeley and Gen. Grant.

Mr. Greeley has of late on several occasions been at the pains to state that he does not consider Gen. Grant a proper man for Presidential candidate in 1872. True he admits that Gen. Grant has proved to be a better President than he expected. Yet Mr. Greeley supported him heartily before, but now, after he has turned out "better than he expected," he declines to support him for a renomination. This is somewhat contradictory, but is explained by the fact of Mr. Greeley's adherence to the Fenton faction in New York, which makes war on the Administration because it cannot control the patronage. The New York Standard has this article on Mr. Greeley's present attitude:

We publish elsewhere two significant contributions to the political literature of the canvass for the Presidency. One is a letter from Mr. Henry B. Stanton, a zealous and gifted Republican, who has done much service for freedom. The other is Mr. Greeley's formal announcement that he does not intend to support the renomination of Gen. Grant. Here are his words:

"Mr. Greeley does not himself favor the renomination of Gen. Grant, and is prepared to give his reasons at the proper time. For the present he considers the discussion premature."

There is a coyness about this declaration which makes it quite mysterious and depressing; and since Mr. Greeley introduces his own name as its sponsor, and not the impersonality of his journal, let us see how far history will add to its terrors. In 1840, Mr. Greeley vehemently opposed the nomination of Gen. Harrison as a Whig candidate for the Presidency. Gen. Harrison was nominated and elected. In 1844 Mr. Greeley earnestly supported Mr. Clay for the Presidency. Mr. Clay was defeated. In 1848 Mr. Greeley passionately opposed the nomination of Gen. Taylor. Gen. Taylor was nominated and elected. In 1852 he contemptuously opposed the nomination of Gen. Scott. The General was nominated. In 1856, he enthusiastically supported John C. Fremont. General Fremont was defeated. In 1860, he went to Chicago to nominate Mr. Bates, of Missouri. Mr. Bates was scarcely heard of in the Convention. In 1865 he resolutely opposed the nomination of Mr. Lincoln, and was on the verge of bolting the party. Mr. Lincoln was nominated and elected. In 1868 he was of the opinion that the Republicans should nominate Mr. Chase. Gen. Grant was nominated.

The friends of Gen. Grant, therefore, notwithstanding this announcement, will be apt to find a great deal of comfort in Mr. Greeley's record.

In the absence of Mr. Greeley's "reasons" we are at a loss to understand his exact position. Mr. Greeley thinks it "premature" to state them. We question the accuracy of that opinion. Mr. Greeley has no right to pronounce upon a subject as important as the nomination for the Presidency, without telling the country his "reasons" for doing so, for he is neither an augur, nor a priest, nor an oracle. The country would like to know why he desires the nomination of another candidate than Gen. Grant. If his views are sound, the sooner a new candidate is selected the better. If they are unsound, let us reason together and controvert them. * * * Politicians will proscribe and bully and browbeat. The people will vote. When they come to vote they will ask Mr. Greeley these questions: Has the Administration been honest? Has it kept the public peace? Has it held relations of comity with the nations? Has it prudently managed the finances? Has it been kind and firm with the Indians? Has it protected the national credit? Has it in any way failed to answer the just expectations of the people? These are the questions the farmer and mechanic will ask, and Mr. Greeley's "reasons" for opposing Gen. Grant must be based upon some dereliction of duty in any or all of these respects.

We think we can answer them. * * * Gen. Grant has faithfully executed the laws according to his oath as President; he has met every obligation which, as a man of honor, he owes to the party which put him in power. He has preserved the public tranquility. He has removed the only cloud that overcast our foreign relations by making peace with England. He has held the tumultuous and agonized South with a firm, steady, and yet a gentle hand. He has avoided all complications with Spain. He has so sustained the honor of our flag that, for the first time in its history, proud, imperious England has apologized to another nation, and that nation the recently despised republic. He has so strengthened our credit that our bonds to-day are rising to the highest regard in the markets of the world. He has paid the debt and collected the revenue. He has led the country in every step that looked toward peace and prosperity, and repressed all experiments and adventures in dangerous seas. Nay, more; so religiously has he observed his promise to know only the will of the people, that he abandoned a wise and favorite measure of annexation rather than embarrass his party and the country, and his flag, because Grant is its President. The very fact that he has borne himself well in its high place, that the "fierce light which," as Tennyson says, "beats" upon the seat of supreme executive power, and has shown no blot, no one thing that the patriot need to regret, is seen in the degrading calumnies which his enemies have been compelled to scrape out of the gutters. If the President has forfeited his claim to public confidence by some conspicuous act of misgovernment, we should hear another chorus than this doggerel about relations in office and Custom House quarrels in New York.

Harper's Weekly continues its significant pictorial illustrations of "Democracy," as exemplified by the way things are done in New York. Parallel pictures are given, representing the millionaires of the ring rolling in wealth and luxury, and another representing a scene in which a landlord calls for his rent upon a poor family. In this last picture the wife remonstrates at the high rent, when the landlord tells her that if the rent is high, taxes are enormous, and that her husband always votes for the thieving ring who are responsible for this state of things. On another page illustrations are given showing the summer palaces of the members of the ring, which, with the surrounding grounds and all the appointments, are marvels of elegance and splendor. These pictures are designed to show New York tax-payers where their money has gone. Harper's Weekly and the Times are doing a splendid service for the country, and their efforts will be gratefully remembered.

Massachusetts Democrats in a recent address, "thank God" that slavery is abolished. When the National Convention of that party comes together next year and Massachusetts Democracy utters this ejaculation, "Vice President" Stephens will pick up his hat and depart, and "Boss" Tweed will silence the indiscreet utterance.

The Republican vote in the late election in Kentucky was 89,576. The highest Republican vote at any former election was 57,261.

A relaxation has taken place in the government of Strasbourg, the city gates being again left open until 11 o'clock at night.

A Democratic Opinion of Tammany.

The St. Louis Dispatch is a Democratic paper that is disgusted with Tammany and an outspoken repudiator of its frauds. It says:

Somebody, who was it? was wishing that we had a Tammany in St. Louis. We are afraid it is far too great a luxury for the West. One Tammany is quite enough for one nation, and the sooner the Democrats of the United States set their seal of condemnation upon the New York affair, the better it will be for their cause. With the increase of representation in the West, on the new departure platform, they can do without New York City. Let it go. No party can hope to succeed with such an incubus of villainy weighing it down, and, indeed, it would be far better to give up the State than for the Democracy of the Union any longer to connect itself even to the suspicion of an alliance with the men who have done their level best to damn them.

THE PROPER DISTINCTION OF WOMAN.—A writer in Lippincott's Magazine says: Is there any barrier against presumption, and against an attempt at equality, like thoroughbred courtesy? 'Do what you will, you can never be so thorough a lady as I am,' was the impression made upon me by the sweet humility, the plain dress, the almost forlorn surroundings of Mrs. Curtis, the former mistress of Arlington. It was more what she did not do, the absence of effort, coupled with the desire to make you happy, the thorough-breeding, the self-abnegation, the graceful dignity, that made this lady a duchess in her faded realm. Such breeding and such manners as hers are not within the reach of every one; they are partly natural gifts; but the virtues which led to them are to be cultivated by every one with some hope of success. Miss Sedgwick was one of these wonderfully well-bred women. No woman in American was more famous than she in her prime, and she had much of the grace, with little of the formality of those "old school" manners in which she must have been trained. Flattery never turned her head; she was humble and modest as a village girl, graceful and courtly as Madame de Sevigne. Her manner of introducing two persons has never been surpassed. She made them both feel honored and distinguished. Her attitude of listening was in itself a compliment, and to the very last she maintained a charm beyond beauty, the charm of perfect manners.

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

TUALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON, July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder pained me a great deal and a LARGE BONY SWELLING grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been taking your "Oak Weed Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and THE BONY GROWTH HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED and I use my limbs and am for better than I have been for years.

TO HOUSE BUILDERS & PAINTERS

"AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINTS."

THESE PAINTS ARE SO WELL KNOWN throughout the Atlantic States and their reputation so abundantly established for

Beauty, Permanence and Economy

That we can confidently recommend and guarantee an entire satisfaction in their use.

THEIR COST is less than pure leads, and covers one-fifth more surface, making them the most economical Paints in the market.

THEIR DURABILITY is unquestioned. They dry hard with a smooth and glossy surface and will not chalk, crack or peel off.

THEIR ADAPTABILITY.—They are already mixed and ready for use and require no oil, turpentine or dryers. Are sold of any desired shade, by the gallon only.

Testimonials:

Gen. James S. Negley, M. C., Pittsburg, Pa., writes Nov. 10, '70: "I have no hesitation in recommending the "Averill Chemical Paints" to those who regard economy and durability. It weathers our smoky atmosphere better than any Paints I have tested. The colors are rich and variable. Altogether I find them the CHEAPEST AND BEST."

"JACKSONVILLE FLORIDA CUSTOM HOUSE.—It looks as fresh and glossy as when first applied. I do not believe any LEAD AND OIL CAN EQUAL IT.
"WM. P. DOCKRAY."

I have carefully compared the cost and merits of the Averill Paints with White Lead and Oil and find 09 cents per gallon in favor of the former.

R. F. DANFORTH'S PATENTED PETROLEUM FLUID

Perfectly FREE from the Danger of Explosion.

THIS FLUID, AFTER YEARS OF PATIENT EXperiment, and the expenditure of over one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, has been produced by R. F. DANFORTH, of Cleveland, Ohio, and has been introduced with perfect success.

IT CANNOT BE EXPLODED in a lamp, or in any way, or by any known test.

IT IS FREE FROM GREASE AND FILTH, and will not injure the finest fabric.

IT IS FREE FROM ALL DISAGREEABLE ODOR, and in this respect is preferable for a night lamp.

It gives a purer, more brilliant, and at the same time softer light than any oil or fluid in use, and is fully equal to gas light.

IT DOES NOT SMOKE THE CHIMNEY in the least.

A gallon of it will burn as long with the same height of blaze as Kerosene.

It is more easily extinguished, when ignited, than Kerosene.

It is strictly pure, containing no mixtures or chemicals, burns in an ordinary Kerosene lamp, with simply changing the burner, with or without a chimney.

THIS FLUID is now on Exhibition at the

H. H. PEARSON,

Late of the Russ House.

HAVING BOUGHT THE INTEREST OF MESSRS. Tubbs & Patten, of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, has secured a lease for a term of years of this well known and elegantly furnished Hotel. His previous reputation assures its being kept in first class style, while in order to keep pace with the times he intends to make important reductions in the scale of charges. His intention is to make it a family and business house, while his large connection with the traveling public, warrants him in expecting a large amount of country, Pacific Coast and Eastern patronage. The prices will range from two to three dollars a day for ordinary accommodation. Board by the week or month as per contract. The Table will be kept on the most liberal scale and many improvements introduced. The spacious reading room is the finest of its kind in the city, while the furniture and fittings generally are superior to those of any hotel in San Francisco. CITY.

OUR POLICE COURT.—The manner in which Judge Denny has administered the affairs of his office, thus far, has resulted not only advantageously to the city as compared with former ... of office, but to the credit of the incumbent in several respects. He has certainly, in ... opinion, laid down and followed the only correct rule in relation to a sensible and just discrimination between different classes of offenders. ... bummers and habitual attendants upon police ... are made to feel the heavier weight of the law, while those who commit offenses more through ignorance of the law, or without bad intention, or through accidental passion, are shown a reasonable leniency. The court is thus made a means of dispensing dispassionate justice instead of vengeance, or of prostituting the bench to the purposes of multiplying judicial gains. Judge Denny has also greatly systematized the business of his office, not only making its transactions easier for himself, but rendering it plain and easy reference for any who may desire to examine the records. He has had two docket books prepared—one for city and one for State cases by which great economy of labor is secured, as well as a saving of half the expense to the city of docket books. These dockets are so prepared, as to show at a glance ... printed forms, with all necessary suitable blanks —the title of the case, the charge, the judgment or amount of fine, and whether paid. He also has convenient books for memoranda and accounts, and much simpler and cheaper blank forms than were heretofore used. Altogether, the Judge has introduced quite a number of reforms and improvements, the benefits of which are apparent to even the most prejudiced eye.

HUMORS OF THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—Yesterday, the result of the California election was a problem most industriously studied by all ... politicians and those who had backed their judgment with coin. At one of our leading hotels a party of gentlemen were discussing the matter, and as the greater number of them were of the sort of Democrats who believe in the virtue of "blowing" either before or after the polls are closed, of course there was much loud talk about Haight seemed to have the best of it. Just at this moment Sam Wiseman came along and said: Sam, "Gentlemen, you are doing a good deal of loud talk, now, but you just wait till you hear from the southern counties. They are all Democrats down there, and can't read. They think Booth is the man that killed Lincoln and every son-of-a-gun of 'em will vote for him." The shave was so keen, and the Radical laughter which followed the sally was so loud and long, that that crowd of Haight men found a new place of conference right away.

HORSE THIEVING.—Mr. E. Mahn, a far... residing in the vicinity of the Dalles, some two weeks ago had a valuable horse stolen from his farm. The animal, after much difficulty, was tracked to this city, and on Wednesday Mahn saw a party riding the horse through the streets. He laid the information before the Police authorities, and the animal and rider were taken in charge. The matter was called up in the Police Court yesterday morning, and the evidence showed that the defendant had purchased the horse from a man who represented that he had just returned from the mines, and being "hard up," sold it at a very low figure. Judge Denny discharged the defendant, stating that he was of the opinion that the horse had been purchased in good faith, and that the accused was not aware of its having been stolen. The animal was then turned over to Mahn.

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The following is the list of passengers sailing this morning for San Francisco per ship ...: Oppenheimer, Prof LeConte, John D Ellis, Miss Sarah L Bowman, B D Lee, wife and two children, Miss L Greenan, L B North, A S Webster, J S Kent, Jas Lacker, wife and two children, B Peckham, T A Bradshaw, W H Pope, J P Nokes, S I Mercer and wife, J S McConnell, S Fisher, G Settimer, Mrs L Cary and child, Geo S Potter, Mrs C F Cannon and child, J L Bird, John Both..., wife and son, F McLean, W F Tuth..., J. P. A..., ...son, Wm Fitzgerald, P Fitzgerald, John Mor..., ..., Robert Smith, J McGinley, S L Reed and wife, Miss J Parrish, E R Waterhouse, Mrs E ... W... and four children, S Meste..., A R Rome..., ... wife and child, M Stacy, J C Douglass, W ... Bulange, P M Hoyte and 43 in the steerage.

INSURANCE CO. TO BE ORGANIZED.—We learn that there will be a meeting to-day of a number of leading business men of this city, to organize a ... insurance company, to be a branch of the Home Mutual. Of those who are connected with this movement, we may mention Messrs. W. S. Ladd, Allen & Lewis, L. Goldsmith & Co, John McCraken & Co., Hodge, Calef & Co., Mr. Sanborn, H. L. Pittock, Robt. Pittock, H. Boyd, S. ... Story, Fails Bros., W. L. Halsey, I. S. Bry..., ... & Co., etc. A considerable number of others whose names we did not learn, are interested in the matter.

PASSENGERS FOR THE NORTH.—The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship Gussie Telfair sailed last evening for Victoria, San Juan, Nanaimo and Sitka, taking the following named passengers: J. H. Martin and wife, Mr Didley, Mr Vincent, Major Allen and lady, Mrs Kasarareff and 3 children, ... Brilliant, Ed Nathan, Louis Nathan, Miss Maria Nathan, Miss Julia Nathan, Selina Nathan, Mr Nathan and wife, Geo E P Ihrie, U S A, Mr Sunday, B Shields, wife and child, H Korriegle, N Mitropolsky, Miss Ellen Flyms and Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger.

RAILROAD IRON FROM THE BRISTOLIAN.—The steamer Josie McNear arrived yesterday morning from Astoria with about 128 tons railroad iron taken out of the Bristolian which was discharged on the east side dock. The Dixie Thompson, which arrived last evening from Astoria, brought up another lot. It is expected that the Bristolian will be able to get up here, perhaps, to-morrow.

ROAD FILLED WITH FALLEN TIMBER.—The road leading out of the city by way of the Canyon, is reported to be impassable on account of timber thrown down by the fire now raging on the western slope of the mountain. The travel to and from the city comes and goes by way of the northern road.

MUSICAL ACADEMY.—Prof. McGibeny will open his Musical Academy on the 13th inst. The Professor has been very successful in his last term, as was proved by the manner in which the Oratorio of Esther was received by our citizens, and we hope the academy will be liberally patronized this winter.

ANOTHER LECTURE ON WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—Miss Susan B. Anthony lectured the other evening principally on the policy of giving woman the ballot. This evening, which will be her last appearance in this city, she will lecture on women's right to the ballot, under the 14th and 15th amendments.

EXCURSION POSTPONED.—Owing to the pressure of freight for Puget Sound, the steamer Geo. S. Wright will be dispatched on Saturday for Seattle and other Sound ports instead of going to Gray's Harbor, the excursion to the latter place being postponed till the return of the steamer.

FOURTH STREET RAILROAD.—Work has already been begun on the grade of Fourth street. The track was graded yesterday afternoon from the end of the bridge at Couch's Lake, southward nearly to A street. Probably within a week the locomotive will pass up the street.

BRANCH GALLERY.—Mr. Carl Bosco went to Salem yesterday afternoon to establish a branch photographic gallery for Mr. Joseph Buchtel. For this purpose, Mr. Montgomery's gallery has been leased. Mr. Bosco will remain at Salem till after the State Fair.

GONE TO VICTORIA.—The Nathan Juvenile Dramatic Troupe left last evening for Victoria and Puget Sound, expecting to be absent about a month. They intend to be at Salem during the State Fair in October.

THE ASSESSMENT.—To-day is the last day allowed by law for making returns of property for assessment to the Assessor's office. The Board of Equalization will meet at the court house on Monday.

FIREMAN'S ELECTION.—Mr. Joseph Reilly was unanimously elected First Assistant Foreman of Multnomah Fire Engine Co. No. 2, at their meeting last evening.

SALE POSTPONED.—The sale of the st... Minnehaha, announced to take place yesterday was postponed till Saturday.

FOURTH STREET RAILROAD.—Work has already been begun on the grade of Fourth street. The track was graded yesterday afternoon from the end of the bridge at Couch's Lake, southward nearly to A street. Probably within a week the locomotive will pass up the street.

BRANCH GALLERY.—Mr. Carl Bosco went to Salem yesterday afternoon to establish a branch photographic gallery for Mr. Joseph Buchtel. For this purpose, Mr. Montgomery's gallery has been leased. Mr. Bosco will remain at Salem till after the State Fair.

GONE TO VICTORIA.—The Nathan Juvenile Dramatic Troupe left last evening for Victoria and Puget Sound, expecting to be absent about a month. They intend to be at Salem during the State Fair in October.

THE ASSESSMENT.—To-day is the last day allowed by law for making returns of property for assessment to the Assessor's office. The Board of Equalization will meet at the court house on Monday.

FIREMAN'S ELECTION.—Mr. Joseph Reilly was unanimously elected First Assistant Foreman of Multnomah Fire Engine Co. No. 2, at their meeting last evening.

SALE POSTPONED.—The sale of the steamer Mazeppa, announced to take place yesterday, was postponed till Saturday.

COMMON COUNCIL.

SPECIAL SESSION. SEPT. 7, 1871.

Present, His Honor, Mayor Wasserman, presiding and Councilmen Bills, Burton, Caywood, Combs, Congle, Hallock, Hill and Moffett.

The Mayor announced the object of the meeting to be to consider the ordinance changing grades on Fourth street.

MR. HILL RISES TO A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Hill called the attention of the Council to the matter of errors committed recently in the published reports of the proceedings of the Council. He had thought the report of the Herald of last Monday's session, an example showing how the grossest possible number of errors could be crowded into the least possible space; but he was satisfied the Herald had been fairly outdone in that respect by the OREGONIAN's report of the proceedings of Wednesday evening. So many errors in so many essential respects, as were contained in that report in relation to the Fourth street matter, could never have been committed except by the exercise of genius.

[NOTE—Genius is our strong weakness. If there is anything we admire, it is genius. If there is anything we pant for, it is genius. We accept Mr. Hill's tribute and assure him we will reciprocate his compliment as soon as we see an opening—REP.]

THE FOURTH STREET ORDINANCE.

The committee, to whom was referred the ordinance to change the grade of Fourth street, reported a substitute, accompanied by a bond executed by the Oregon Central Railroad Company.

The substitute which recites the bond was read and adopted, in lieu of the original ordinance.

Mr. Hill moved an amendment, providing that the city shall be reimbursed by the Company for any damage which the city may sustain by reason of the proposed change of grades. The amendment did not meet with any second.

Mr. Hallock moved to amend that part of the preamble which recites that the change of grade is wholly for the benefit of the railroad company, by striking out the word "wholly." He thought it not exactly true that the change is wholly for the benefit of the company, as the change would improve the entire grade of the street. His amendment was, however, not adopted.

Mr. Hill requested that the fact of offering his amendment should be noted on the journal.

It was objected to this, that as his motion was not seconded it could not be a part of the record.

The ordinance was then read a third time and passed. Yeas, 8; nays, none. Absent, Mr. Besser.

SWINE, GOATS AND GEESE.

On the motion of Mr. Hill the ordinance concerning certain animals and birds was taken up, and, on his motion, it was amended by striking out the word "birds" wherever it occurs and inserting "fowls." The ordinance was then passed.

ABOUT THE CITY POUND.

Mr. Hallock called attention to the fact that the Council had directed the Chief of Police to remove the city pound while yet no provision has been made for a place to put it, or for paying the expense of removal; and on his motion the Committee on Health and Police was instructed to report upon the matter of a suitable location at the next meeting.

The Council adjourned.

THE COURTS.

THURSDAY, Sept. 7, 1871.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—FIELD, DEADY, J. J.—Adjourned until Monday, 18th inst.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, J.—Isaac Thomas vs steamboat Webfoot No. 2. Wm. BUSINESS NOTICES.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—We invite the attention of the afflicted to a card in this morning's paper from Mr. W. T. Coleman, attesting to a remarkable cure effected by Dr. Aborn. The Dr. has made arrangements to remain in this city till the 1st of October.

METALLIC BOOT AND SHOE HEELS.—Mr. W. H. Wetsell of this city is agent for the sale of "shop rights" to use Kitchen's patent hollow metallic boot and shoe heel. This is one of the latter-day improvements which ought to come into general use. The heels are easily adjustable, fully as light as leather, very durable and they prevent one of the commonest nuisances—running over. For rights to use, see Mr. Wetsell.

PAPER CLAMPS.—Wetsell's new and improved paper clamps are now upon the market—a simple, cheap and desirable article, and one which answers the purpose admirably. They are to be found in all the book stores.

GONE FOR A NEW STOCK.—Mr. J. S. Kast, of the firm of Kast & Richards, goes down on the steamer to-day to select their fall and winter stock of boots and shoes. Mr. K. has had much experience in selecting goods, and their customers will find the new stock the best in the market.

PERSONAL.

Judge S. J. Fields will return to San Francisco on the steamer of to-day. The business of this term of the U. S. Circuit Court was not very extensive or onerous, and the Judge only came here this year because the law required him to hold a term at least once in two years.

STEAMERS TO SAIL.—The N. P. T. Company's steamship John L. Stephens will sail at 7 o'clock this evening for San Francisco. The same company's steamer George S. Wright will sail at 7 o'clock P. M. Saturday, for Puget Sound. Hutchinson, Kohl & Co.'s steamship Constantine will sail at seven o'clock this morning for San Francisco.

A WONDERFUL CURE

Of Granular and Ulcerated Sore Eyes.

EDITOR OREGONIAN—Sir: I desire, through the columns of your paper, to call the attention of those who, like myself, have suffered, or may be suffering, from diseases of the eye, to the successful treatment of Dr. Aborn. For a year past I have been compelled to give up my wagon shop on account of a severe affection of the eyes, coupled, towards the last, with neuralgia in the head. While suffering severe pains from neuralgia, my eyes would frequently run blood; my sight was so nearly gone, that I had to be led about by a boy.

Having for months been under the care of respectable physicians, who, however, failed to help me, I was, while despairing of a cure, induced to try Dr. Aborn. Although I have been but two weeks under his treatment, I have so far recovered as to be able to travel easily without assistance—the large ulcer, which threatened the loss of my left eye, has been entirely removed, and I am happy to be enabled to say I am sure, by Dr. Aborn's treatment, restored to nearly perfect sight, without suffering the least pain while under his care. And I consider it a duty I owe to Dr. Aborn to make this grateful statement, and recommend those who are unfortunately similarly afflicted, not to hesitate to apply for relief to that skillful and successful practitioner.

W. L. COLEMAN.

State of Oregon, } S.S.
County of Multnomah. }

I, W. L. Coleman, being first duly sworn, say that the foregoing statements are true.

W. L. COLEMAN.

Subscribed and sworn before me, this 6th day of September, A. D. 1871.

J. G. CHAPMAN,
Notary Public, Oregon.

I take pleasure in testifying to the above statement, having seen the patient mentioned led by a boy, for some time previous to applying for relief to Dr. Aborn, and entirely unable to walk without the boy's aid. To my great astonishment, four days after, I saw the patient walk down stairs and out of the front door, without any assistance whatever.

Still Onward and Upward.

The extraordinary increase that has taken place in the sale of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters during the past year, is another proof that an intelligent people, although they may try all things, hold fast only to that which is good. No amount of puffery can lift inferior articles to the position of standard specifics. To use the words of Tom Paine, they may go up like a rocket, but are sure to come down ignominiously like its extinguished stick. Hundreds of such nostrums have gone up and come down since the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, nearly the fifth of a century ago. It has not and never has had a rival in efficacy or popularity, and now stands at the head of all proprietary remedies manufactured on this side of the Atlantic. In every civilized community on this continent, or in South America, it is the accepted remedy for dyspepsia, bilious complaints, constipation, general debility, nervous weakness, and many other unpleasant or dangerous maladies. A medicine so widely extended is of course pirated and imitated by dealers without conscience or integrity.

Therefore, let every man and woman who designs to purchase genuine Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, see to it that they have what they pay for, and not the results of an infamous imposture. Look carefully at label, stamp and name blown in the glass, and do not forget that the rue bitters is sold in bottles only.

An affectionate young woman of Montgomery, Ala., on being told that her lover had been suddenly killed, cried: "Oh, that splendid gold watch of his! Give me something to remember him by."

A Salt Lake City paper says the climate there is peculiarly trying to the hair. The editor's fifteen wives have been trying, with an unpleasant degree of success, to deprive his caput of its natural covering.

There is something so chivalrous in killing a man, you know, and Hunter of Akron, O., who was sentenced to death for killing the parents of the girl he professed to love, was almost suffocated by the flowers, hugs and kisses of a number of women in the court-yard.

Gossip.—So many people have so little to do that they find plenty of time to attend to other people's business in addition to their own.

We once knew a man that was bankrupted on account of the kindness of a friend that was too free in attending to his business. He really meant no harm, but on account of his officiousness, and not knowing the true state of his friend's business, he was the cause of his ruin.

It is customary to attribute this weakness to brainlessness, and, in contempt, to say old woman; but allow me to say that, if you find a decrepid old bachelor or a brainless fool of either sex, he is the best type of a gossip in the world. He can wag his head so significantly, he can say so much in such few words that, to speak of woman as a representative is a burlesque upon his skill. May I speak plainly to show contempt for the villainous murderer of reputation when I say that no fitting place can be assigned to the destroyer of more happy homes, the desolater of more hearts and the impersonation of more hell than can be concentrated in any other victim the devil can ensnare. Pardon me, reader, but the dealer in other men's reputation should not be confined with the thief, lest the thief suffer by the association; nor the ordinary murderer, since his calling is to kill the body while this incarnate devil attempts to destroy the soul.

Portland R. A. C. No. 3.—Regular Convocation on the second Thursday evening of each month at Masonic Hall, No. 16 North Front street. By order of M. E. H. P.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 7, 1871.

Gold in New York, 112¾.

Currency, buying, 87½; selling, 88½.

Exchange on San Francisco, coin, ½@¾ ℔ cent. discount; on New York, 1 ℔ cent. premium.

Telegraphic transfers on New York, 1½@1¾ ℔ cent. premium; on San Francisco, ½ ℔ cent. premium.

Our local finances have undergone no change since last week's review. All regular bank customers have no difficulty in obtaining all desired for business purposes at the banks. Our banks are receiving by each steamer from San Francisco by Wells, Fargo & Co's Express large sums of coin. Remittances from the interior are a shade freer and soon will be very liberal. It is expected that by the middle of October the supply of coin will be liberal with an easy market ruling.

Steamer Gussie Telfair sailed for Sitka and intermediate ports this morning. She carried a full cargo of merchandise.

Steamer George S. Wright leaves for Port Townsend, Seattle and Bellingham Bay on Saturday, September 9, 1871.

Steamer John L. Stephens leaves for San Francisco to-morrow, (Friday) evening.

"Straws show the way the wind blows." Tong Duck Chang shipped to-day by steamer Constantine 1,500 mats Rice, ex Garibaldi. When our connections by railroad with the Atlantic cities is accomplished or even before that event occurs, it is not at all improbable we will have such communications with China and Japan established that merchants from there owing to time saved in transit, will allow of our exporting very repeatedly to the San Francisco market.

At the present writing we are not in receipt of our usual market reports from San Francisco, owing to the line being used for telegraphing election news, and in consequence we are unable to learn as to prices in England. Our last advices from San Francisco gave an excited Wheat market, with speculators controlling, and both shippers and millers out of market. The market quotations gave Wheat at $2 60@2 62½. That there is nothing to justify such extreme rates we are confident, as by referring to the Liverpool quotations for the past eleven years we find the highest market attained within that time was in October, 1867, when California Wheat was quoted 19s 7d. The highest rates ruling in San Francisco at that time were for good to choice, $2 50 @2 65 per cental, and now our Liverpool quotations are 12s 4d @ 42 less there, with equally as high market ruling in San Francisco now as then. That there is anything to cause prices to rule higher than now quoted in Liverpool we are not aware of. On the contrary, from all mail advices received, the market there although it may fluctuate by going slightly up and down—will hardly average 12s unless there is inflation we are not now aware of.

Our latest information by mail from Europe estimates the yield per acre in Southern Russia as a whole below an average, but the increased acreage consequent upon railroad expansion would more than make up for the deficit per acre. In Belgium and Germany the crops were estimated to be short, but how much was not stated, though we are led to suppose not much. In France the yield would be short, owing to some localities not producing much if any, but in Southern France the crops were large, so on the whole the crops in France would not fall as far short as at first estimated, but the new wheat crop found a bare or virtually bare market. Advices from Spain gave us a large increase over former years which will allow her to export largely. The wheat yield in Chili is very large which will find a market in Europe owing to so many vessels coming laden with Railroad Iron taking Wheat as return cargo. The yield in the United States (east of the Rocky Mountains) taken as a whole is above an average, which taken with the very large increased average, will allow of heavier shipments than has ever been known before. The Potato blight in Europe has been very general, but in Ireland is not so severe as in 1845, when so many starved to death there owing to the total, or very nearly so, failure of the Potato Crop. The experience of that year caused the people not to rely so fully on the Potato crop to obtain food as previously. The very general introduction of Corn in the United Kingdom will take the place of Potatoes as an article of food for any deficit in that crop. Our mail advices from Odessa or Southern Russia give information of an increased acreage and the yield over an average. In the United States the yield per acre is full, if not more, than the average, with a very large increased average, owing to many more farms in the Southern States being brought under cultivation this year over any year since the rebellion. The exports from Baltimore, New Orleans and New York of Corn is so far in excess this year over any previous year that but few fully realize it. We gave in our issue of August 29th the shipment of Corn from the port of New York from July 1, 1871, to August 15, 1871, in comparison with the like period for last year, which we reproduce, as no later advices have been received since:

" " " "	1870	79,457
		2,375,324

This is the increase in not quite seven weeks. The increase from New Orleans shows, although not so large a gain, yet a very heavy increase over last year as also does Baltimore.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated [illegible] successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing [that he] has returned from visiting the principal [Hospitals of] Europe, and has resumed practice at his [office on] Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his [services] may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor [money in seek]ing out new remedies, and has returned with [increased] facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons [illegible] male and female, are there who are suffering [illegible] once from the effects of secret indulgence [illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at [the] pallid, [wasted] and disfigured faces and the [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of— or the enjoyment of life. In this [illegible] go and suffer until death closes the [scene]. Let guardians, friends, attend to those [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cured for and cured before [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private diseases his especial study [illegible] years—is certain to cure the most inveterate cases [illegible] sury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful [illegible] tended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] public by using the names of eminent physicians in Europe and other places. Be therefore [illegible] and strict inquiry, or you may fall into the [hands] of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combated [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots [under] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused blunted intellect, loss of confidence [illegible] approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society [illegible] memory, flashes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, [illegible] sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If not obtained, should apply [illegible] either in person or by letter, and have a cure [illegible] his new and scientific mode of treating this [illegible] never failing effecting a quick and radical [illegible] Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person [illegible] prove [illegible] rily to him that he was cured [illegible] or plaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not a sacred responsibility resting upon them see to it to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will guarantee patients a written instrument binding himself to effect a speedy and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT [home] by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the [public]. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and barbers, lazy too work at their trades. Here are the smiths, makers, newspaper carriers [illegible] office [boys], etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you [will find] their former occupations in it. Look at the [Directory] for 1862 and 1863. The only way [illegible] to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians [in nine] cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety to [trust] any of them unless you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon defies [illegible] titles, [illegible] Gibbon [illegible] his abilities [illegible]

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, near Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box [illegible]. REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform Dr. [Gibbon] that they read his advertisement in the Daily O[regonian]. ly6d4pt
